

A GALA CONCERT- THE THREE BARITONES
Dedicated to the Commemoration of the 75th Jubilee Celebration of Muslym Magomaev
Featuring soloists from the
State Academic Bolshoi Theater
And the Marinskiy Theater of Russia

The Talents of the World Foundation under the direct leadership of David Gvinianidze invites you to a concert, based on the repertoire of the legendary baritone of the 20th century, Muslym Magomaev. The project "My Love – My Melody" is a tribute to the talent of the great artistic performer, conceived and implemented by the President and artistic director of the Talents of the World Foundation David Gvinianidze. The premier of the "Parade of the Best Russian Baritones", dedicated to the memory of Muslym Magomaev, was held on November 26, 2008, a month following the singer's death, at the Moscow International House of Music. Later, the concerts featuring the three baritones triumphed throughout Russia from Kaliningrad to Vladivostok, were invited to Europe and Asia. Today, due to numerous requests of audiences in connection with the 75th Jubilee of Muslym Magomaev, the concert's "encore" presentation again makes a whirlwind procession across countries and continents! Leading soloists of the State Academic Bolshoi Theater of Russia and the Marinskiy Theater will take part in this concert tour. These concerts will once again conquer the public of Russia and become a real revelation for the US public. The golden hits of the Soviet Frank Sinatra will receive a new incarnation and will shine with new diamond facets performed by artists, whose strict critics attribute to the best modern baritones:

DAVID GVINIANIDZE is the author and artistic director of the project, a performer widely known to the public of Europe, Asia and the United States alike; Winner of the Star of Glory on Star Stage in Moscow, the gold medal For Patronage and the UN Gold Medal For Contribution to the Development of Art, the Order of the Ruby Cross of Glory, and the Honorable Letters of the President of the Russian Federation and the Minister of Culture of the Russian Federation For the Great Contribution to the Russian Art.
